

Camp Yowochas Activity Guide

STATIC COURSE

The Static Course is the most challenging aspect of our Challenge Course. Participants ascend to our floating platform 40ft up in the air before working their way around 6 separate elements. The participants safety and fall arrest system is in their own control making this activity very physically and emotionally intensive and requiring a high level of commitment and focus from all participants.

PROGRAM SPECIFICS

- This activity requires a 3hr time slot
- Groups up to 15
- Well suited for ages 13 and above
- Led by trained Camp Yowochas Staff
- Available April to October
- Training at ground level includes safe group belay techniques and how effective communication will ensure safety out on the course
- Using effective communication and commands, participants work in pairs around the elements 40ft up checking each others safety systems and all while under the watch of Camp Yowochas staff member

SAFETY CONSIDERATIONS

All climbing equipment and the high ropes course itself is inspected daily before use. Participants undergo thorough training and practice before ascending to the platform. All climbers are secured through active fall protection, either involving approved ropes and belay devices or static lobster claws, and supervised by Camp Yowochas staff at all times.
